RELEASE OF LIABILITY Inherent Risks

I, the undersigned, do hereby acknowledge that the Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp is a completely voluntary overnight weekend program designed to provide outreach, support, and social interaction for anyone interested in or affected by Aphasia. I understand that Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp and its partners The University of British Columbia, March of Dimes Canada, and Douglas College will not be monitoring, evaluation, or providing medical attention of health care needs support. Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp and its partners The University of British Columbia, March of Dimes Canada, and Douglas College are in no position to provide on-site care, nor is camp participation a substitute for participants' regular medical and health care needs. My well-being and safety is my responsibility throughout the course of the camp weekend experience.

Each camp activity carries inherent risks for campers. These risks may include, but are not limited to, contact during sports (with another person, equipment or property), group separation, slips, falls, burns, transportation accidents (provided or carpooling), and other incidents. Inherent risks may lead to injury or illness including, but not limited to, injuries, illnesses, bodily injury, burns, insect bites, head and back injury, or death.

Assumption of Risks

I have read the inherent risks and will participate in the activities of the camp. I accept that there are inherent risks involved in camp activities and agree to accept those risks. I will seek and receive explanation from the camp of any activities I have concerns with or need clarification.

WAIVER/RELEASE OF LIABILITY

In consideration of the camp activities, I agree that the Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp, the University of British Columbia, March of Dimes Canada, and Douglas College, their employees, volunteers, students or directors shall not be held liable for any injuries or damages which may arise out of the course of normal camp activities, including accident and inadvertence.
