

SEA TO SKY APHASIA CAMP 2022

RELEASE OF LIABILITY/WAIVER,
PUBLICITY AUTHORIZATION,
& AGREEMENT TO CONDITIONS

RELEASE OF LIABILITY/WAIVER

I, the undersigned, do hereby acknowledge that the Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp is a completely voluntary overnight weekend program designed to provide outreach, support, and social interaction for anyone interested in or affected by Aphasia.

I understand that Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp and its partners The University of British Columbia, March of Dimes Canada, and Douglas College will not be monitoring, evaluation, or providing medical attention of health care needs support.

Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp and its partners The University of British Columbia, March of Dimes Canada, and Douglas College are in no position to provide on-site care, nor is camp participation a substitute for participants' regular medical and health care needs. My well-being and safety is my responsibility throughout the course of the camp weekend experience.

I understand and agree that Sea to Sky Aphasia Camp and its partners, The University of British Columbia, March of Dimes Canada, and Douglas College, are not responsible for any loss, injury, damage or expense suffered by a person arising from or related to participation in Camp or use of the equipment, for any reason whatsoever, including negligence on the part of all partners involved, its officers, employees, servants, agents, students or volunteers.

Each camp activity carries inherent risks for campers. These risks may include, but are not limited to, contact during sports (with another person, equipment or property), group separation, slips, falls, burns, transportation accidents (provided or carpooling), and other incidents. Inherent risks may lead to injury or illness including, but not limited to, injuries, illnesses, bodily injury, burns, insect bites, head and back injury, or death.
